

GRILLING & BBQ GUIDE / THE REGION'S TOP DENTISTS

Hudson Valley

the music issue

221
GREAT SUMMER
CONCERTS

Plus

13 Fun Festivals, HV Artists,
Local Venues, Record Stores and More

Bethel
Woods
Center for the Arts

Contents

JUNE 2023

FEATURES

42 \ Good Vibrations

The Hudson Valley music scene is more varied and exciting than ever. Here's a guide to all the festivals, concerts, artists, and more.

50 \ High Times

A number of independent airports used to be scattered across our region. Read all about their fascinating history.

54 \ Good and Plenty

This nonprofit in Pine Plains puts food on the table—and provides a sense of community—to hundreds of residents.

56 \ Top Dentists 2023

Our annual round-up of the best dental professionals—including endodontists, orthodontists, surgeons, and pediatric dentists.

TRENDING

19 \ A charming farmers market with a little twist; the talented company that performs Shakespeare in the Catskills; a luxurious Cape Cod getaway; the SUNY Purchase grads who make creative candles in Kingston; a Beacon coffee shop where you can adopt a kitten; a tour of several wonderful shops in Tivoli; a UFO fair for alien enthusiasts in Pine Bush; and, in honor of Alzheimer's and Brain Health Awareness Month, smart ways to keep your mind sharp and disease free.

HOME & DESIGN

29 \ Fresh Start

Hudson design firm Foley & Cox creates a timeless and elegant home in Greenwich.

34 \ Living In Troy

A former Victorian industrial hub, Troy is booming with business and culture.

EAT & DRINK

83 \ All Fired Up

Calling all home pitmasters: up your grilling game for backyard parties this summer with insider tips from top local chefs.

91 \ Café Con Leche

A Wappingers Falls favorite for Puerto Rican fare establishes a new locale in downtown Rhinebeck.

IN EVERY ISSUE

12 \ Online this Month

14 \ Editor's Letter

14 \ Places We Love

74 \ Happenings

91 \ Drink of the Month

92 \ Where to Eat

104 \ Backstory

Explore life at Camp Shanks, an important WWII outpost that left Orangeburg almost as quickly as it had arrived.

Cover photo courtesy of Bethel Woods Center for the Arts

29

42

50

83

Home & Design

INSPIRATION FROM THE VALLEY'S
BEST ARCHITECTS, DECORATORS,
BUILDERS, REALTORS, AND MAKERS.

FRESH start

SITTING PRETTY

In the living room, four chocolate brown armchairs, rather than an expected sofa, circle the pair of round glass cocktail tables by Desiron.

When a fashion executive and his wife were beginning a new chapter of their lives and wanted a modern design aesthetic that avoided cold minimalism, they turned to New York-based design firm Foley & Cox. The firm, whose retail store is based in Hudson, is renowned for serene spaces subtly layered with color and texture that create a sense of welcome and comfort. The result? A warm, timeless, elegant home.

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

Connecticut bluestone walls, the epitome of garden living, are the backdrop for the outdoor living room, made cozy with a woven rug from Annie Selke. The overscale cocktail table accommodates drinks and casual meals in front of the fire. The teak swivel chairs are from Brown Jordan. The wall lantern is from Troy Lighting.

SWEET DREAMS

The guest room features a Noguchi light fixture and an upholstered bed from Serena & Lily with bedside lamps from Ralph Lauren Home. A group of Asian prints above the bed brings in layers of pattern and cultural interest.

ALL TOGETHER NOW

The family room (above right) has a wood-beamed coffered ceiling inset with Philip Jeffries grasscloth, and a pair of paintings by Ethan Boisvert above woven rattan consoles by Ralph Lauren Home. The Artistic Frame armchairs, upholstered in Holland & Sherry fabric, soften an overscale steel and glass cocktail table. The ceiling grid pattern intentionally repeats the pattern of the floor covering. Floor-to-ceiling shelving (right) in natural stained white oak showcases the owner's collection and can be accessed with a contemporary library ladder.

FINE DINING

At left, the upholstered dining chairs from Artistic Frame surround a pedestal table made by Richomme that expands to seat 12. The modern chandelier is from Ralph Lauren Home. Above the fireplace, Wide Oak by David Konigsberg.

Excerpted with permission from Language of Home: The Interiors of Foley & Cox by Michael Cox (Monacelli, 2023). All photos by Tim Lenz.

